DRAKE CONFIDENT OF VICTORY.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 7.—The Drake football squad of twenty-two players in charge of Coaches Griffith and Hobbs, left Des Moines last night for Columbia, Mo., where the team meets the University of Missouri Saturday afternoon. The regulars, McHenry and Krull, were injured because of injuries, but the balance of the squad is in prime condition for the game. Drake team is confident of victory and expects to spring a surprise on the Tigers.

Missouri To Play Iowans.

Columbia, Mo., Nov. 7.—The University of Missouri football team was given its last scrimmage before the game with the Drake eleven here Saturday. Kicking, forward passing and breaking up shift combinations were emphasized in the practice drill this afternoon. Guard Clay was out for the first time this week. He will start in the Drake game. Zimmerman, center, is the only varsity player not in good condition. It is probable, however, he will play Saturday against the Iowans.

Although the varsity played an aggressive game against the "scrubs" there was much fumbling by the regulars.
